ChristLife was founded by Dave Nodar in 1995 as a direct response to the urgent need to equip Catholics to evangelize. Cardinal William H. Keeler recognized ChristLife as an official lay apostolate of the Archdiocese of Baltimore, Maryland.

"Evangelization is the essential mission of the Catholic Church, and yet few Catholics know how to respond to this mission. The small, dedicated staff of ChristLife has had the opportunity to present training for evangelization throughout the United States and abroad. I have received nothing but excellent feedback on their seminars."

Archbishop of Baltimore

Our aim is to gather lay people united by a personal commitment to Christ and the desire to proclaim Him to form a Missionary Corps. This is not just another course or another program. It is a movement of Catholics dedicated to evangelization!

Our Call and Challenge: Proclaiming Christ Everyday

Do you yearn for your family members, friends, and acquaintances to know Christ? ...to come into the Church? Band together with lay Catholics who share your passion and join a Missionary Corps dedicated to spreading the Gospel.

New Wineskins for the New

Evangelization — Do you know how to talk about Jesus or when to share the Gospel with someone? Learn how to be creative and relevant when reaching out to people who are disconnected from the church.

Go Into the Harvest Fields! It's time to take action and move out for mission. Together let's implement innovative and practical structures that draw people to encounter the Lord Jesus and open the way for them to belong to His Church.
